childhood years. Beyoncé: Life Is But A Dream 2013 opens with Beyoncé's "Daddy Lessons" music video, where she performs in a rundown New Orleans gothic house with a dirt floor. Beyoncé goes on to explain that her father learned his craft from his father, a guitar player and drummer, and that her mother learned her craft from her father. Beyoncé's stepfather taught her how to dance, where her mother learned that from her. The documentary covers Beyoncé's early career, her music production, her 2005 movie, A Knight's Tale, her "Lift Off" music video, her new material and musical collaborations, including the partnership with the "Dreamgirls" movie theme song. The documentary also covers how Beyoncé met her husband Jay Z in 2002, and how her family was affected by the Hurricane Katrina, which flooded their New Orleans apartment and destroyed her grandmother's house. Beyoncé: Life Is But A Dream 2013 also looks into the transition that Beyoncé made from a public figure into a family woman, 82157476af
