Money transfer [#Sec9] This service allows an international transfer of funds to India from abroad. In India, they are called kredyturystyczne (kredyturystyczne) in Polish and Fideiknij in Russian. One needs to be aware of the KNF (National Institute for Fiscal Studies) rules, that are a key source of regulations in Poland, but also guidelines for importers when taking international transactions into account. It covers matters like transfer taxes, privacy protection, risk assessment, etc. Most importantly, it requires the sending and the receiving bank to have a credit account, which means the transaction is very unlikely to be executed. A transfer tax of 1 % is charged when the sum of the amounts to be transferred exceeds 100 000 PLN. There are no size limitations in Poland, but some of the providers offer a bulk service. *(1) Internet transfer.
